

Declaration on Honour

I,, hereby declare that I possess a native-level proficiency in English.

I further declare that my English skills at native-speaker level are based on the following foundation:

- I was born and/or raised in a country where English (e.g. British or American English) is an official language.
- English is my first language and the primary language spoken in my family.
- I have completed a substantial part of my education in English.
- I hold nationality from an English-speaking country.

(Please check minimum two of the above followings).

Therefore, I am not required to submit any additional proof of English language proficiency for my application to the Semiconductor Talent Incubation Program Taiwan (STIPT).
